

About Northwest Physiotherapy

- The practice - formerly known as Victoria Egan Physiotherapy - has served the Hills District for nearly 40 years, and is centrally located in the Specialist Medical Centre adjacent to The Hills Private Hospital on Windsor Road, Baulkham Hills.
- Through our association and provision of physiotherapy to the Hills Private Hospital, we have developed a relationship with the specialist doctors of the area and have an intimate knowledge of the physiotherapy management and rehabilitation of patients with orthopaedic, sporting, women's health and spinal injuries.
